FROM THE JUNIOR STARTER PACK

The king, the queen and the rook

The green dots show where each piece could move

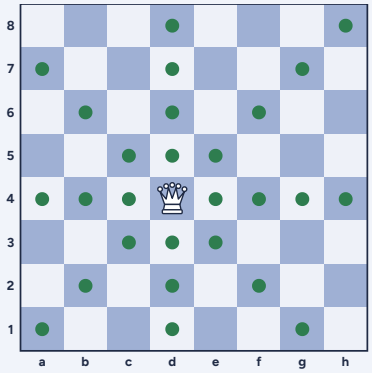

The king

LETTER: K

The king may move to any square next to it.

White's king starts on e1 and Black's king on e8. A king moves one square in any direction.

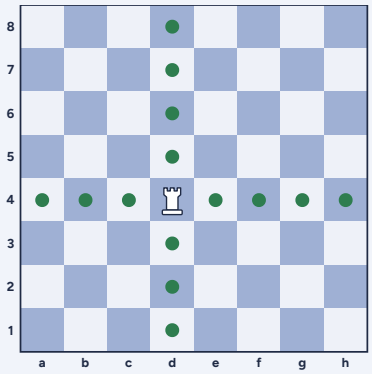

The queen

LETTER: Q

The queen may move to any square along the file, the rank or a diagonal it stands on.

The queen combines the powers of the rook and the bishop, which makes it the most powerful piece.

The white queen starts on d1 and the black queen on d8.

The rook

LETTER: R

The rook may move to any square along the file or the rank it stands on.

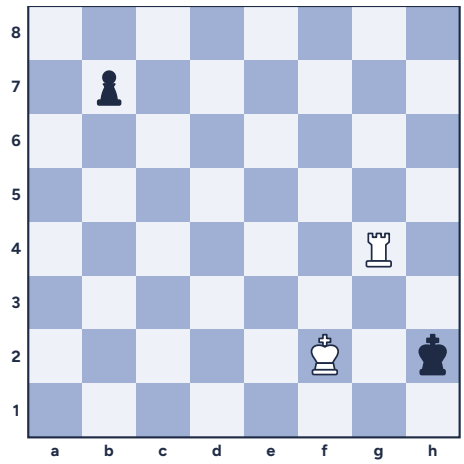

Each player has two rooks (once also called castles). They start in the corners: a1 and h1 for White, a8 and h8 for Black.

WHERE THE FACTS COME FROM

Every fact in this pack was checked against the source pages below on 3 Nov 2026. Where sources give different figures, we show each one with its source rather than picking one.

FIDE Laws of Chess: handbook.fide.com/chapter/E012023
Britannica: chess: www.britannica.com/topic/chess

Not affiliated with FIDE, Encyclopaedia Britannica, any chess federation, club or school, or any maker of chess sets. Their names are used only to identify the sources and the rules discussed. All pictures are our own simplified drawings: not copied from any book, diagram, photograph or chess set design.

NEED HELP?

Useless can't help (he's an eraser, and he's busy rubbing out the bits he got wrong), but we can. Problems with your file, or spotted something we should fix? Email info@reallybyte.com.
